Dig out that special pair of earrings from that hippie boutique, that string of love beads you made with your friends, and that crazy belt buckle you wore with your bell-bottoms. If you have jewelry from the 1960s bring it on board and wear it! We would love to photograph and document what YOU were wearing way back when. Join us in The Retreat Lounge as curators from the Museum at Bethel Woods share a sneak peek at items from the Museum's collection and talk to you about the special pieces that help keep your story alive

MARCH 30 • MONDAY

10:00am – The Symbol of Peace Presentation (G) Celebrity Central, Deck 4
11:00am Speakers: Kenneth Bray, Woodstock 1969 Silversmith, Julia Fell, Curator of Exhibits of The Museum at Bethel Woods

Join Museum Curator Julia Fell and Woodstock silversmith Ken Bray as they discuss the history of the Peace symbol. Follow this symbol from its origins in the 1950s nuclear disarmament, through its association with the peace and anti-war movements of the 1960s, and what it means today. Discussion will detail the participation of Julia and Ken in the filming of a new documentary directed by Leo Scott, grandson of Gerald Holtom, inventor of the Peace Symbol.

2:30pm – 3:30pm Accessory to Woodstock: The Jewelry of 1969 by Curators of The Museum at Bethel Woods and Kenneth Bray, Woodstock 1969 Silversmith (G) Celebrity Central, Deck 4

Speakers: Kenneth Bray, Woodstock 1969 Silversmith, Dr. Neal V Hitch Senior Curator of The Museum at Bethel Woods, Julia Fell, Curator of Exhibits of The Museum at Bethel Woods

Join The Museum at Bethel Woods for an exclusive look at the jewelry of Woodstock. Curators Dr. Neal V Hitch and Julia Fell will share photographs from the festival and highlight real jewelry worn by festival attendees from the Museum's collection. Explore the fashions at Woodstock and discuss the trends that helped make the festival iconic. The curators will display and interpret actual accessories that were worn at Woodstock!

APRIL 2 • THURSDAY

10:00am – Kenneth Bray, Woodstock 1969 Silversmith Presentation (G) Celebrity Central, Deck 4
11:00am Speakers: Kenneth Bray, Woodstock 1969 Silversmith

Ken Bray is an original Woodstock vendor – his iconic, symbolic silver jewelry was sold at the festival in 1969 and many other festivals that summer. Join Ken as he presents his journey as an artist, a history of countercultural symbology and jewelry, and his own Woodstock experience. See examples of Ken's work then and now before heading to the cruise merch shop to browse Ken's new line of silver jewelry, reproduced from his original 1969 designs.

2:30pm – 3:30pm Q&A: "John Lennon's Lost Weekend - Setting the Record Straight" with May Pang, John Lennon's Girlfriend. (G) Celebrity Central, Deck 4

Speakers: Special Guest May Pang, John Lennon's Girlfriend

APRIL 3 • FRIDAY

2:30pm – 3:30pm

Woodstock Symposium and Mixer with Julia Fell, Curators of The Museum at Bethel Woods

*Speakers: Dr. Neal V Hitch Senior Curator of The Museum at Bethel Woods, (G) Celebrity Central, Deck 4
Julia Fell, Curator of Exhibits of The Museum at Bethel Woods*

Join Bethel Woods Curator of Oral History Julia Fell as she hosts a Q&A with the people on board who attended the Woodstock festival. At this session we will hear directly from the people who were there, and still remember! Do you have a story to share? Get in on the action! Meet fellow festival alumni and connect with Museum staff about how to preserve your memories. All cruise attendees welcome to attend.
